PETITIONING THE COURT

☒ To issue a warrant

☐ To issue a summons

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation of Mandatory Condition #1: "The defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime."

Violation of Mandatory Condition #2: "The defendant shall not illegal possess a controlled substance."

Violation of Standard Condition #9: "The defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the Probation Officer."

Nature of Noncompliance: According to court documents, on July 13, 2017, Austin Police officers initiated a traffic stop on a silver 2004 Lexus TX LP GKR-7534 for a traffic violation. The vehicle continued to drive after the officers initiated their emergency lights on their police vehicle. As the vehicle slowed down to stop, the passenger in the vehicle fled the vehicle on foot. Officers chased the subject on foot. The subject was apprehended and placed in handcuffs. Officers found an HEB grocery bag near the subject. The subject was taken into custody and identified as Eric Alan Porter a convicted felon. The driver of the vehicle was approached by officers and identified the driver of the vehicle as the defendant, Anthony Taylor. Officers could smell a strong odor of marijuana coming from inside the vehicle. Taylor was detained by officers. Officers searched the HEB grocery bag and found a white, powdery brick like substance tightly wrapped in cellophane and a green leafy substance in a brick like form also wrapped in cellophane. Officers identified the substances to be cocaine and marijuana. Officers conducted a probable cause search of the vehicle. Officers discovered a large amount of drug paraphernalia, to include a box of sandwich bags, baking soda used in the manufacturing of crack cocaine, two digital scales, razor blades with white powder residue, and a Newport cigarette box containing an off-white rock like substance believed to be crack cocaine. Anthony Taylor and Eric Porter were both placed under arrest for Possession of a Controlled Substance and both subjects were searched. Officers found a large amount of cash (approximately 2,850.00) in Taylor's pants pocket. The seized white, powdery, brick like substance had an approximate weight of 500 grams of cocaine. Taylor was arrested and charged with the offense of Possession of a Controlled Substance with Intent to Deliver-Cocaine, Cause No. D-1-DC-17-204853. On July 24, 2017, the defendant was released from the Travis County Jail after he posted bond.
